DEAR FELLOW MOTORIST

I respect your right to drive on the road.

I do not own the road.

I will be patient and not harass you.

I will be tolerant and not intimidate you.

I will not speed to kill you.

I accept that sometimes you will make mistakes, so will I.

If I want to drive fast I will find a safe place to do so.

By driving fast on the road I am no better driver, I am just breaking the law by more.

If I take risks I will be responsible for my actions, including all legal consequences.

As a driver I hold the lives of my passengers in my hands.

My licence is a privilege and not a right.

Without a licence I may not be able to get a job.

My actions can affect my success, lifestyle and well being for the future.

My family's greatest fear is that I will die in a car crash.

I will do everything in my power to not become a crash statistic.

I wish to acknowledge that I accept and agree with the Safe Driving Pledge:
